BONE YARDS WIN TWO GAMES IN ONE DAY

To the tune of 28 to 1 the Boneyards defeated the Commercial Block club at Liberty park yesterday. At no stage of the game were the Boneyards in danger. For seven innings not a man reached first base. Evans at back stop and Coombs and Bain in the box were the features of the game. Only four hits were secured in the nine innings. The Boneyards also played the Silk Socks in the morning, defeating them by a score of 22 to 2, making the fifth game played without losing one. Fol-

AND PILE UP A TOTAL OF FOUR- SHOW NEED OF PRACTICE BY CITY'S BEST SHOTS.

> While a large percentage of this city's sport-loving public were scattered Boston . about the city yesterday watching the various amateur baseball games, another portion was up on the Popperton place, and judging from actions and St. Joseph talk they were just as happy as any fan who ever yelled to kill the umpire. It was the Salt Lake contingent of shooting sharks, and the occasion was the opening of the new gun club grounds. Faces that have been prominent in this sport in the past and many others who have ambitions to become experts at handling a gun, were there. Some favored the double barrelled, pump or automatic shotguns, others the carefully-sighted target rifles, while few were exponents of the pistol. They all mingled together and while discussing the relative merits of each branch the argument yesterday. Their traps were in place, while the rifle marksmen had to content themselves with looking had to content themselves which at a newly dug hole in the side of the mountain where they were promised targets would be in place for next Sunday. The club house is practically completed and gave evidence of the promise made that a suitable place would be erected to take care of the shooters during the week with perfect safety.
